

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The number of unwanted calls has been considerably less with Indiana's new law and it should not be preempted with a lessor law.